

Intersections of gender, political economy and security

12 February 2021 at 4pm (GMT)

Microsoft Teams

Chaired by Professor Laura Sjoberg, Director of the Gender Institute, Royal Holloway

What tools are necessary to study gender in politics? How do gender, security and political economy relate? Should security and political economy be considered separately or are they interdependent? Four expert panelists will discuss the intersections of gender, security and political economy in their research and teaching:

Featuring:

Dr Marsha Henry (London School of Economics)

Dr Daniela Lai (Royal Holloway)

Dr Swati Parashar (University of Gothenburg)

Professor V. Spike Peterson (University of Arizona)
