

Gender Violence in Politics and Paths Toward Trans* Epistemic Justice

By Luisa Rebeca Garza López

Friday 13th May , 15:30 (BST) on Zoom with simultaneous translation

This session will review the recent progress in the recognition of the human rights of gender identity of trans* people in Mexico and we will show its complex relationship with the historical gender violence against trans* people. The session will analyze these advances along with the different types of gender violence that trans* people experience within Mexican society, both socially and politically, including epistemic injustice.
